

NEW SDDL IDENTIFICATION REQUIREMENTS EFFECTIVE 12/31/2009!!

Make your visit to the driver exam station a successful one. Learn about the new identification requirements so you can come prepared when applying for, or renewing, your driver license.

Effective December 31, 2009, to apply for or renew your driver license or identification card you will need to provide the documents listed below.

One of the following to prove identity, date of birth and lawful status:

- Certified U.S. birth certificate
- Valid unexpired U.S. passport
- Certificate of Naturalization
- Certificate of Citizenship
- Valid unexpired permanent resident card
- Valid unexpired employment authorization document
- Foreign passport with valid unexpired U.S. Visa with I-94

If your name is different than the name on your identity document you will need to bring additional proof of your legal name. Acceptable documents for proof of legal name change are:

- Marriage certificate (issued by a state vital records agency)
- Certified adoption document
- Certified court order authorizing a name change (such as a divorce decree)

One document proving Social Security number. The documents below serve as proof of Social Security number:

- Social Security card
- W-2 Form
- SSA 1099 Form
- Non-SSA 1099 Form
- Pay stub (must include name and social security number)

In addition to the documents listed above you must provide two documents proving your principal address. Please bring two of the documents listed below:

- Utility bill
- Rent receipt
- Phone bill
- School record
- Bank statement
- Mortgage document
- Tax document

The new licensing rules and other actions will help to establish a more secure driver license, and will help address our shared concern over national security, identity theft and highway safety.
